

NUIX NEO DATA PRIVACY FOR MANAGING INFORMATION REQUESTS

Manage the surge of information access requests, including Data Subject Access Requests (DSARs) and Freedom of Information (FOI) requests with Nuix Neo Data Privacy solution. Reduce manual workloads, understand your data landscape, meet strict regulatory requirements, and gain public trust. Accelerating your information access requests response is faster, easier, and smarter with Nuix Neo Data Privacy.

Organizations are drowning in information access requests, all while grappling with stringent regulatory requirements and public expectations. Recent consumer data privacy regulations have made it simpler for individuals to make information requests. The volume and collection of data is outpacing governance. Meeting demanding response deadlines under global privacy laws is a monumental task. Finding, classifying, and redacting the right information has been challenging – until now.

Nuix Neo Data Privacy solution's advanced automation and deep content understanding empowers organizations to respond to requests, seamlessly and within a short duration. By automating data processing, Nuix enables organizations to locate, categorize, and redact information central to FOIs and DSARs 95% faster than traditional manual methods, drastically reducing workloads, ensuring compliance and instilling public trust.

Nuix Neo Data Privacy saved the team between 77 days for a simple FOI request and 420 days for a larger request – having a searchable, clickable, linked table of contents was a real game-changer for the FOI team.
